

RISING CELEBRITY ENTREPRENEUR

AMBER TANG

Amber Tang is a multi-talented individual known for her roles as Miss Hong Kong, entrepreneur, pilates coach, and content creator. Despite holding a Master's degree in Architecture, she took a leap of faith by participating in the Miss Hong Kong Pageant, where she achieved the titles of 1st Runner-up and Miss Photogenic. This propelled her into a career in television and eventually led her to become a content creator. In 2022, she was chosen as one of four creators for Meta Creator Week Bali.

Amber's diverse background as a Pilates Instructor with a design background inspired her to establish Anadana, a brand specializing in petite activewear that empowers petite women. She is driven by her passion to make a positive impact on the world through her work, brand, and content, encouraging others to follow their dreams.

Amber has received notable awards, including Miss Hong Kong 2018 1st Runner-up and Miss Photogenic 2018. She has also been honored with the Architecture: A&D Trophy Awards 2017 and has achieved recognition as the first TVB Artiste ranked on the Cloudbreakr Top KOL Chart.

With a Master of Architecture degree and multiple fitness, pilates, and nutrition certifications, Amber showcases her commitment to overall well-being. Her profile reflects versatility, determination, and an inspiring journey that motivates others to embrace their unique talents and pursue their dreams.
