

THE RISING EVENTS & DECOR PLANNER

AYA WONG

Founder

Ms. Aya Wong, the esteemed founder of Shang Xi Sdn Bhd, hails from the enchanting region of Johor in Malaysia. It was during her formative years in school that she developed a deep affection for art and discovered her innate talent for design. Aya Wong's passion for creating captivating works of art was evident, and her love for designing only grew stronger with time.

Upon completing her education in Johor, Aya Wong ventured into various fields, seeking diverse experiences that would shape her future success. Along her journey, she also pursued specialized courses to enhance her skills. She obtained a certificate from the renowned Japanese Wagashi Master course conducted by Junichi Mitsubori and completed the Korean Piping Flower cake course. These certifications not only added to her repertoire of talents but also reflected her commitment to continuous growth and learning.

Aya Wong firmly believes that marvelous artworks have the power to bring happiness to others, infusing their lives with positive energy and attraction. With this guiding principle, Aya Wong made a significant shift in her focus after the onset of the pandemic. She realized that, amidst the challenges and uncertainties, nothing could bring maximum joy and happiness to people's lives like weddings and celebrations. Consequently, Aya Wong immersed herself in the field of event planning, capitalizing on her artistic passion and expertise.
