

THE PRINCE OF COUNTRY MUSIC

Enkh-Erdene Otgonbaatar

Born into the humble embrace of a small town in rural Mongolia in 1990, Enkh Erdene's early life was deeply rooted nomadic traditions of his ancestors. From a young age, Enkh Erdene was drawn to sound that filled his home, growing up in a culture rich in musical heritage he was drawn to more encore the horse fiddle and captivating throat singing in his home land.

His passion for Country and Western music led him to international fame. Enkh-Erdene's love for artists like Johnny Cash, Willie Nelson and George Strait drove him to pursue his dreams on a global stage. The turning point came in 2016, in a setting far from the country music heartlands of Nashville, when Enkh-Erdene decided to audition for Mongolia's Got Talent. This decision changed the course of his life forever. For his audition he chose to perform 'Amarillo by Morning' a classic hit by George Strait.

THE OUTSTANDING COUNTRY SINGER OF THE YEAR ( MONGOLIA )

The performance was a sensation. Enkh-Erdene's voice, rich and authentic captivated both the audience and judges. From a local talent, he had become an international phenomenon almost overnight. The pinnacle of his journey came when Enkh-Erdene was crowned the winner of Mongolia's Got Talent.

Witness his unforgettable performances, from 'Amarillo by Morning' to 'Friends in Low Places,' on America's Got Talent: Fantasy League and see how he bridges the gap between two distinct musical worlds. Watch as he captivates audiences on Mongolia's Got Talent and America's Got Talent with his unique blend of Mongolian melodies and classic country songs.

He then made a contract Mongolian new music label company, "New Nomad Records" in 2023 and released his first debut album "Amidral Bayan" which translated "Life is Rich" in 2023.