

STORIES TOLD IN EVERY STROKE

Fatemeh Shadmanizadeh

Born in 1990, Fatemeh Shadmanizadeh is a distinguished Iranian artist known for her expertise in various painting techniques, particularly charcoal painting. Her attention to detail and ability to create hyperrealistic artworks have made her a prominent figure in the world of fine arts. Fatemeh's artistic journey began in 2013, though she had already been practising and teaching all kinds of painting techniques prior to that. Her skill set includes coloured pencil painting, black pen painting, hyperreal face design, oil painting, acrylic painting, decorative panel creation, and calligraphy, but she is especially renowned for her charcoal paintings, which are noted for their lifelike quality.

THE BREAKTHROUGH CHARCOAL PAINTER OF THE YEAR (IRAN)

Fatemeh runs a private art school, where she has over 100 students, ranging from the age of four and up. Her dedication to art education and her ability to nurture young talent have earned her significant respect in the art community. She has exhibited both her own and her students' artworks in more than ten exhibitions held in Kashan, demonstrating her commitment to sharing and showcasing artistic talent.

Her most recent exhibition took place at the historic Tabatabaei House in late 2023, adding to her growing list of accomplishments. This prestigious venue, once home to one of Kashan's most affluent families, provided a fitting backdrop for Fatemeh's remarkable body of work. Today, she continues to inspire a new generation of artists through her exceptional teaching and artistic achievements.
