

THE LEADING FINANCIAL CONSULTANT

Foong Wai Leon is an engineer turned financial professional who has achieved remarkable success in the capital markets. With a career spanning over 12 years, Leon's expertise in the financial industry has made him a highly regarded figure. He holds the prestigious title of Certified Financial Planner (CFP) after completing the assessment modules with the Financial Planning Association of Malaysia (FPAM). Furthermore, he has fulfilled all the necessary requirements for Fund Manager licensing under the Securities Commission (SC).

Joining Phillip Capital, Leon proved his capabilities by amassing an impressive portfolio of over RM40 million worth of assets under his stewardship in less than five years.

The key to Leon's success lies in his unwavering passion, determination, and persistence. These qualities have propelled him to achieve extraordinary results. At the pinnacle of his career, Leon consistently won numerous awards year after year, demonstrating his exceptional performance and dedication to his clients. His reputation for excellence drew hundreds of clients each year, and he continually challenged himself to reach greater heights, distinguishing himself among his peers.

Beyond his professional achievements, Leon also serves as a senior financial coach to younger generations. He encourages them to push their limits not only in terms of academic qualifications but also in personal business revenue. Leon's role as a mentor and coach exemplifies his commitment to empowering others and inspiring them to overcome obstacles.

FINANCIAL PROFESSIONAL

Leon's interests extend beyond finance, as he has delved deeply into psychology and obtained certifications as a Neuro-Linguistic Programming (NLP) practitioner, Certified Hypnotist, and Certified Hypnotherapist. These qualifications have enabled him to provide valuable survival therapy, particularly to individuals facing challenging circumstances such as cancer patients, suicide victims, and under-served communities. Leon's dedication to supporting and uplifting others is evident in his desire to establish his own foundation in the future, with the aim of honoring and advancing society.

Foong Wai Leon's career trajectory from engineer to esteemed financial professional showcases his remarkable journey and accomplishments. Through his passion, determination, and persistence, he has achieved significant success in the financial industry, amassing a substantial portfolio and winning numerous awards. Leon's commitment to personal growth and development extends beyond finance, as he utilizes his knowledge in psychology to provide support and therapy to individuals in need. He is inspired to set up his own foundation in years to come to honor and advancing the society.
