

MALAYSIAN BADMINTON STAR, OLYMPIC SILVER MEDALIST

Goh Liu Ying

Goh Liu Ying is a celebrated figure in badminton, renowned for her remarkable achievements and contributions to the sport. As a distinguished athlete, she has made a significant impact on the badminton court with her exceptional skills and strategic acumen.

Goh Liu Ying's standout accomplishments include winning a silver medal in mixed doubles at the 2016 Rio Olympics, an achievement that brought her widespread recognition and solidified her status as one of Malaysia's premier badminton players.

Her success extends beyond the Olympic stage, with numerous accolades from international tournaments and championships, showcasing her ability to perform under pressure and push the boundaries of the sport. In addition to her illustrious sporting career, Goh Liu Ying is also a co-founder of Wellsport, a groundbreaking sports-integrated platform designed to revolutionize sports media in Malaysia.

THE INSPIRING SPORTSWOMAN OF ALL TIME

Through Wellsport, she aims to provide more in-depth and engaging sports stories to Malaysian audiences, reflecting her dedication to enhancing the sports experience. The platform is committed to delivering comprehensive content that fosters a deeper connection between athletes and their fans. Goh Liu Ying's transition from a celebrated athlete to a visionary entrepreneur underscores her continued commitment to the world of sports and her drive to contribute to its growth and development.

