

KELVIN CHAN

HONG KONG

THE EMINENT MUSIC PRODUCER

Kelvin Chan Kin Man, born on February 14, 1979, in Shenzhen, Guangdong Province, China, is a multifaceted artist who has made significant contributions to the music and entertainment industry. From a young age, Kelvin displayed a profound interest in music and developed a deep passion for the art form. He considered music to be his lifelong calling and dedicated himself to honing his skills and pursuing his dreams.

Kelvin's journey in music began when he was accepted into the prestigious Modern Music Academy in Beijing, China. There, he studied electric guitar performance and modern music, allowing him to cultivate a profound understanding of various styles of Western popular music. This comprehensive knowledge of music genres from the West has greatly influenced his artistic approach and contributed to his versatility as a musician.

After completing his studies, Kelvin returned to Hong Kong, where he embarked on a career as a music instructor. However, his unwavering passion for music compelled him to explore opportunities in the entertainment industry. He decided to join the TVB Artists' Training Class, a renowned program that has produced many successful television artists. Kelvin's dedication and talent shone through, and upon graduation, he officially became a television artiste.

Despite his success as a television artiste, Kelvin never abandoned his musical aspirations. In 2009, he had a breakthrough moment while portraying a bar guitarist in the TV drama "Heaven and Earth." His exceptional musical abilities caught the attention of producer Chik Kei-yee, who recognized his talent. This led to Kelvin composing songs for the character played by Michael Tse and recording over thirty classic electric guitar compositions for the series. Since then, he has become a go-to composer for TVB, providing music for numerous drama series such as "Heart and Sword," "4 in Love," "Leave a Message of Love," "Her Girl Era," "Airport Strikers," "Burning Hands," and "Provocateur," among others.

THE EMINENT MUSIC PRODUCER

In 2014, Kelvin's versatility as an artist was further showcased when he portrayed the street vagabond and band leader "Half-Red, Not Black" in the drama series "Come On, Cousin." The series gained immense popularity, and in celebration of its success, Kelvin organized the highly acclaimed "Hea Music Concert," joined by the entire cast. The concert captivated audiences and further solidified Kelvin's reputation as a skilled musician and performer.

Kelvin's dedication and relentless pursuit of excellence have not gone unnoticed. His years of hard work have cultivated his talents in various domains, including acting, music performance, singing, and music production. He continues to evolve and refine his skills, constantly pushing the boundaries of his creativity. Last year, Kelvin took a significant step forward in his career by establishing his own entertainment company, Big Star Entertainment LTD, marking the beginning of his entrepreneurial journey.

Currently, Kelvin is actively involved in the production of the TVB-produced large-scale reality show "The Ultimate Battle." The show highlights his genuine and heartfelt friendship with Milkson Fong, the host of "Wild Outdoors," as they embark on challenges together. Their camaraderie and emotional connection have deeply moved the entire production team, resonating with audiences on a profound level. Additionally, Kelvin is gearing up for the highly anticipated large-scale variety show "King of Disguise Competition," set to be aired by TVB in July. Excitement is building among fans and viewers eagerly awaiting his next captivating performance.

Kelvin Chan Kin Man is a highly talented and versatile artist whose unwavering passion for music has driven him to excel in various facets of the entertainment industry. From his early days as a music enthusiast to his current endeavors as a successful television artiste, composer, and entrepreneur, Kelvin's dedication and multifaceted talents continue to captivate audiences. With his ongoing commitment to his craft and his recent foray into entrepreneurship, Kelvin's influence in the music and entertainment industry is poised to grow even further. We eagerly await his future endeavors and the artistry he will continue to bring to the world.
