

THE FASTEST GROWING HALAL CHINESE MUSLIM CUISINE

The restaurant's signature dish, Mee Hiris, is a traditional hand-pulled noodle dish made fresh daily to capture the authentic taste of Chinese Muslim cuisine.

Popular in North China, these noodles are prepared by slicing kneaded dough into boiling water, where they are cooked to perfection with flavorful meat and seasonings. The most renowned version, ShanXi Datong Mee Hiris, is known for its unique and rich flavours, which have become a highlight on the restaurant's menu. The name "Mee Hiris" itself reflects the distinctive slicing technique used to create the noodles, adding to the dish's authenticity and appeal.
