

RISING STAR VOCALIST

Peter Rosalita

Great things start from small beginnings, as they say. This couldn't be truer for this wonder boy who has captivated the hearts of people around the globe.

At just 13 years old, Peter Rosalita has already made a significant impact in the world of music, captivating audiences with his exceptional talent and charismatic performances. Peter's journey to stardom is nothing short of extraordinary.

Peter first gained widespread recognition as a semi-finalist on America's Got Talent Season 16 in 2021, where his powerful voice and captivating stage presence left a lasting impression on judges and viewers alike. His journey continued on America's Got Talent All-Star edition in 2023, where he clinched a Top 2 spot in the weekly semi-finals, further solidifying his status as a rising star in the music industry.

He also had the chance to perform and be interviewed by none other than Ellen DeGeneres on her self-titled show, The Ellen DeGeneres Show. But Peter's accolades extend far beyond the confines of reality TV. He is a grand champion in several local mall talent competitions in the UAE, showcasing his versatility and prowess as a performer. His international acclaim reached new heights when he was crowned the Grand Prix winner in the prestigious Tessafest IV International Festival in Kazakhstan, a testament to his global appeal and undeniable talent.

Peter is a proud recipient of Asia's Pinnacle Award in the Philippines, honoring him as "Asia's Youngest Rising Male Singer Performer" in 2023. In the recent World Championship of Performing Arts (WCOPA) 2024 held in Long Beach, California, Peter once again showcased his versatility in the art of music, earning six gold and two silver medals in different genres. He was also named a Division Champion.

For this boy with a big voice, there is a bigger world out there with infinite possibilities. With his passion for music and discipline, his future success is certainly on the horizon.
