

POURS SOUL AND HEART INTO EVERY NOTE

Putri Ariani

Ariani Nisma Putri, widely known as Putri Ariani, is a remarkable musical talent from Pekanbaru, Indonesia, currently based in Jogjakarta. Her passion for music ignited at a young age, and she is now pursuing a major in music at senior high school. Despite the challenges she faces as a visually impaired artiste, Putri's relentless determination has been the driving force behind her success. One of her guiding principles, "Hard work will not betray the results", encapsulates her journey and tenacity.

Putri's breakthrough came in 2014 when she won Indonesia's Got Talent, marking the start of her rise in the music industry. This victory propelled her to greater heights, but her talent truly transcended borders in 2023 when she earned the coveted Golden Buzzer from Simon Cowell on America's Got Talent. This recognition brought her to the international spotlight, showcasing her extraordinary voice and musical prowess to a global audience.

THE ICONIC YOUNG MUSICIAN OF THE YEAR ( INDONESIA )

Throughout her career, Putri has collaborated with some of the world's most esteemed artists, including David Foster, Peabo Bryson, Leona Lewis, Boyz II Men, Ronan Keating, and the Jonas Brothers. In 2024, she took her success even further by teaming up with Alan Walker on the chart-topping single "Who I Am," solidifying her status as a global sensation.

Putri continues to captivate audiences worldwide with her soulful voice and magnetic stage presence. Her perseverance and undeniable talent have made her a beacon of inspiration for aspiring artists everywhere, proving that no obstacle is too great to overcome when passion and hard work are at the heart of one's journey.

