

YANI BAKHTIAR

Yani Bakhtiar, an esteemed fashion virtuoso, embarked on her illustrious journey from a modest hobby that flourished into an unwavering passion, reshaping the boundaries of elegance and style within the fashion domain. With an extensive tenure of over three decades, her contributions transcend mere collection designs; they constitute experiences that seamlessly fuse Malaysian arts and cultural essence into her creations, defying geographical confines in the process. For Yani, the realm of creative expression knows no bounds, allowing her artistic endeavours to reach unparalleled heights.

The resplendent presence of Yani Bakhtiar in both local and international fashion exhibitions has been nothing short of awe-inspiring, captivating audiences with meticulous craftsmanship and innovative designs at every turn. Her design philosophy orbits around the belief that the sphere of creation is boundless, resonating deeply with Malaysians while introducing a global audience to the resplendent tapestry of Malaysian arts and culture.

At the core of her designs lie the intrinsic values of style, comfort, and elegance. Yani's collections serve as an ode to exclusivity, seamlessly intertwining timeless fashion with contemporary sensibilities. Each meticulously crafted piece is a testament to her unwavering dedication, aimed not only at adorning the wearer with exquisite attire but also instilling a sense of empowerment and confidence.

CULTURAL HERITAGE COUTURIER OF THE YEAR

UNVEILING THE CULTURAL KALEIDOSCOPE OF STYLE

Her illustrious career has graced prestigious local platforms such as KL Fashion Week and Malaysian Fashion Week, transcending borders to leave an indelible mark on esteemed international stages. Yani Bakhtiar's collections have radiated at globally acclaimed events including Indonesia International Fashion Week, London Muslim Shopping Festival, Cannes Film Festival Awards Gala, Luxury Fashion Shows in France, and the esteemed New York Couture Fashion Week. Through her artistic expressions, she has woven a narrative that glorifies Malaysian artistry on a global fashion panorama.

The accolades from international patrons serve as catalysts for continuous creative innovation. As a celebrated award-winning designer, Yani Bakhtiar's passion for creation remains undiminished, resonating nationally and globally. Her designs, revered in Toronto, Canada for their Nusantara ethnic essence and cherished in London for their hand-drawn batik and vibrant kaftans, find appreciation in Jakarta among mothers through collections like Melayu Manis and hand-drawn batik. The USA stands as a recurring destination, focusing on promoting designs tailored for the American market. Strategic appointments of sales representatives in cities such as Las Vegas, San Francisco, and Los Angeles facilitate the dissemination of batik designs, cardigans, and kaftans to exclusive boutique stores, expanding her global footprint.

Yani Bakhtiar's ceaseless commitment to perfection and creativity continues to elevate Malaysian fashion onto the global stage, meticulously crafting each elegant stitch as a testament to her unwavering dedication and artistic finesse. Her creations grace various departmental stores throughout Malaysia, including esteemed locations such as PARKSON, Metrojaya, and SOGO. Notably, her exquisite collection finds a prominent showcase at PARKSON Elite, situated in PAVILION Bukit Bintang, Kuala Lumpur. This specific counter serves as a quintessential representation of her exceptional work, offering patrons an immersive experience into her world of distinctive and elegant designs.
